

Dear Sir/Madam,

Saraswati Learning Center, a non - profit organization needs your contribution to bring in the underprivileged families with differently abled children to receive educational services through fund raising Art of Giving Charity Auction.

We are blessed to be in collaboration with www.IndoIndians.com, as our anchor sponsor and supporter, along with other talented artists. Through the IndoIndians forum Ms. Poonam Sagar has created this event with artists to contribute their talent and time to this auction. The artist will be collaborating with differently abled students of Saraswati Learning Center to create a masterpiece painting. These paintings will then be auctioned on Sunday, 21st April at 1 Park Avenue, Gandaria, Jakarta.

We are looking for generous sponsors who can help us to cover costs as well as who can be part of this project to bring about a change in the lives of the underprivileged differently abled students. You can choose to any of the following options for sponsorship:

Gold Sponsor – Rp 50,000,000

In kind sponsorships

Sponsorship in kind will be on case to case basis if relevant to the event or to the school.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon and may this theme of 'giving' for the art auction inspire all of us and make all of us come together to generate funds and bring the under privileged families with differently abled children to school as 'the more we give, the more we receive!'

Looking forward to your support with a positive reply.

Warm Regards

Reshma Bhojwani
